

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Today we honor our fathers - the young ones new to this exciting, unscripted vocation; the veterans who've weathered countless sleepless nights; and the stand-in fathers who mentor and guide so willingly by their example with great compassion. Whether living or deceased we remember them today for their tireless dedication, love, and especially for our faith formation.

As we celebrate Father's Day, call upon St. Joseph to intercede for these men in our lives, bringing them blessings of health, peace, and joy. Like St. Joseph, a good father must have a steadfast faith in God to protect and nurture his loved ones.

May the Lord bless each of our fathers' hearts to always trust in the Lord as Psalm 37:23-24 reminds us, "The valiant one whose steps are guided by the LORD, who will delight in his way, although he may stumble, but he will never fall, for the LORD holds his hand."

For Our Fathers & those filling their shoes

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual,
and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.

We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.
So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent;
grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting.

Give them the strength to do well
by their children and by You.

In Your Holy name, O God, we pray. Amen.

-by the late Fr. Charles Currie, S.J.

JUNE 23

- The Wheeling-Charleston and Steubenville dioceses will come together for a Eucharistic Procession down the Ohio River on June 23, called “Put Out into the Deep.”
- This will be a significant experience for both dioceses as Bishop Mark Brennan and Bishop Paul J. Bradley, apostolic administrator of the Diocese of Steubenville, will board a sternwheeler that day and lead the Eucharistic Procession down the river, departing at noon from the Steubenville Marina at noon, at specific sites on both sides of the river where faithful can receive a blessing. Those are the Wellsburg Wharf, the Wellsburg-Brilliant Bridge, Mazeroski Park, Pike Island Lock/Dam, and Heritage Port (in Wheeling).
- From there the pilgrimage will continue by boat to the Bellaire Marina in Bellaire, Ohio, and then back on land to St. John Church in Bellaire where a prayer service and reception will be held. Afterward the procession will return to Wheeling’s Cathedral of St. Joseph, arriving at 7:30 p.m.
- The cathedral will then host an All-Night Eucharistic Prayer Vigil beginning at 8:30 p.m.

- The next morning, June 24, Bishop Brennan will celebrate Mass at the cathedral at 8:30 a.m. Immediately following the celebration, the bishop will lead a Eucharistic Procession at 9:30 a.m. from the cathedral through downtown Wheeling to St. Alphonsus Church. A breakfast will follow benediction.
- After their stop in the dioceses of Wheeling-Charleston and Steubenville, the perpetual pilgrims, who are traveling the entire length of the Seton Route (from Connecticut to Indianapolis) will take the National Eucharistic Procession to Columbus, Ohio.

Chosen to SERVE

Glory to God in the highest!

Celebrating 20 Deacons to boldly proclaim the Word and live as Christ has called us.

Prayer for Deacons

O God, who have taught the ministers of your Church to seek not to be served but to serve their brothers and sisters, grant we pray, that these your servants, whom you graciously choose for the office of Deacon, may be effective in action, gentle in ministry, and constant in prayer.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

HONOR JUNETEENTH IN PRAYER

Juneteenth is a day set aside to celebrate the not only the end of slavery in the United States, but also those who continue to advocate for freedom, unity, and racial healing. May we never give up hope for peace and justice for all people regardless of race or religion here in the US and all over the world.

God of Heaven and Earth, you created the one human family and endowed each person with great dignity.

Aid us, we pray, in overcoming the sin of racism. Grant us your grace in eliminating this blight from our hearts, our communities, our social and civil institutions.

Fill our hearts with love for you and our neighbor so that we may work with you in healing our land from racial injustice. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

11TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22-24

The prophet shares God's word and promise of the majestic tree – so strong and fruitful it will stand out among all others.

Responsorial: Psalm 92

“Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.”

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10

St. Paul writes to tell us all – “We walk by faith, not by sight.” We don't always have to see to know! Trust God always.

Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus uses parables to illustrate how the smallest of things can flourish into the grandest. We don't have to see the seed growing under the earth, but with great care and nurture the tiny seed can become a mighty sight. Our faith can be the same. Be willing to nurture, grow, and care for it to give you strength to be and do great things with the grace of God.

PRAYER INTENTIONS

For the Church, that we not only sow the seeds of faith, hope, and trust among our own, but also peace, love, and kindness for all of God's creation, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For our newly ordained permanent deacons, may the seeds of faith they plant in others grow as grand and strong as the most beautiful shade tree on a hot and humid summer day in West Virginia, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For all fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and all those who have fathered us throughout our lives, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For all of our special and habitual intentions, let us pray to the Lord. . .

Lord hear our prayer
