COMMIT TO THE INTERCESSION OF ST. JOSEPH THIS FATHER'S DAY NEW LITANY OF ST. JOSEPH APPROVED BY VATICAN

As we celebrate the father figures in our lives this weekend, let us remember to lean on the chosen foster father of Jesus Christ as our own spiritual father. Saint Joseph, the nurturer, provider, educator, and protector of the Son of God, gives dignity to fatherhood.

One prayer meant to remind us of St. Joseph's virtues, calling Christi" (Servant of Christ); "Minister salutis" (Minister of salvation); "Fulcimen in difficultatibus" (Support in difficulty); "Patrone exsulum" (Patron of refugees); "Patrone afflictorum" (Patron of the afflicted); and "Patrone pauperum" (Patron of the poor).

The changes recognize St. Joseph's patronage for those suffering – poor and afflicted. Adding the Protector of the Redeemer, Servant of Christ, Minister of Salvation, Support in Difficulty, and Patron of Refugees, acknowledges the honor of his role in the plan of salvation, the guardian of Jesus the Redeemer, and the chosen husband of Mary – having to have both the courage to face any difficulty and the resolute trust in God to migrate great distances not once but three times (to Bethlehem for the census, to Egypt to flee Herod, and then to Jerusalem for Passover).

upon his intercession, is the Litany of St. Joseph.

The Vatican approved an updated version of the Litany of St. Joseph. Seven invocations were added based on the writings of recent popes – St. Paul VI, Saint John Paul II, and Pope Francis.

The Vatican's Congregation for Divine Worship and Sacraments said, it seemed appropriate to update the 112-year-old litany during this the Year of St. Joseph. The congregation noted in doing so would be to honor and emphasize Pope Francis' desire "to increase our love for this great saint, to encourage us to implore his intercession and to imitate his virtues and his zeal."

The Latin-language version of the seven invocations is: "Custos Redemptoris" (Protector of the Redeemer); "Serve

FATHERS IN OUR LIVES

We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.

Fatherhood does not come with a manual, and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.

We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.

This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.

So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.

For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.

In Your Holy name, O God, we pray.

Amen.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading JOB 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Responsorial PSALMS 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. (1b) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

They who sailed the sea in ships, trading on the deep waters,
These saw the works of the LORD and his wonders in the abyss.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high. They mounted up to heaven; they sank to the depths; their hearts melted away in their plight.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

They cried to the LORD in their distress; from their straits he rescued them, He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the billows of the sea were stilled.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

They rejoiced that they were calmed, and he brought them to their desired haven. Let them give thanks to the LORD for his kindness and his wondrous deeds to the children of men.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading 2 CORINTHIANS 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:

The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Alleluia

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel MARK 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

PRAYER INTENTIONS

For the Church, that we may place our trust in God when we are buffeted by storms that leave us feeling powerless and defeated, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For our country's leaders, that they may find the courage to fight racism, sexism, discrimination, and inequality so that all people may be treated as we ourselves wish to be treated, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For fathers, grandfathers, and all who have fathered us, and for all those fathers who have passed on to eternal life, that God may find favor in them, let us pray to the Lord. . .

For those whose lives are in turmoil, who feel that their lives are beset by a never-ending storm, that they may find safety and comfort in God's soothing care, let us pray to the Lord. . .

Lord hear our prayer

LET US GO Rejoicing TO THE HOUSE OF THE LORD.
